Public
This Division

1. To strengthen instructional leadership and ensure the effective implementation of the Basic Education Curriculum, this Office through the Curriculum Implementation Division (CID) reiterates the conduct of regular School Supervision (CID-2026-30) in all public elementary and secondary schools in the Schools Division Office of Tacurong City through KAMPI (Kabalikat sa Malayang Pagtuturo at Inisyatiba).

2. KAMPI serves as the Division's collaborative school supervision initiative that promotes partnership among school leaders, supervisors, and teachers in improving teaching and learning. It emphasizes coaching, mentoring, technical assistance, and shared accountability to support schools in addressing instructional needs, enhancing school management practices, and improving learner outcomes.

Through KAMPI, CID supervisors and school heads work together to:

- 1) monitor the implementation of curriculum and instructional programs, projects and activities;
 - 2) provide timely technical assistance and coaching to teachers and school leaders;
 - 3) identify strengths, challenges, and best practices in schools and Community Learning Centers (CLCs);
 - 4) strengthen school-based initiatives and innovations; and
 - 5) ensure continuous improvement in learner performance and school effectiveness.
3. School supervision shall be conducted by the assigned CID Team regularly every Tuesday – Thursday of every week for the whole school year. Schools are
